Mojave Desert Land Trust Hosts A Shooting Star Party
During the Perseid Meteor Showers!
Saturday, August 11, 2007
8:00pm – 2:00am

The Mojave Desert Land Trust (MDLT) will host a shooting star fundraising party on Saturday, August 11, 2007, from 8:00pm to 2:00am Sunday at The Integratron, 2477 Belfield Boulevard, in Landers, CA.

The skies will be dark and the fireballs bright to enjoy this outstanding astronomical event. There will be telescopes and amateur astronomers to give star tours. A National Park Service Ranger will provide a pictorial presentation on their Dark Sky program. Also included will be a tour of the Integratron and a Sound Bath.

MDLT will provide a complimentary dessert bar, coffee, tea and water. You bring a water bottle for refills, and whatever creature comforts (blankets, chair or cot) you need for a night of stargazing. Star Partiers have an option to sleep overnight at The Integratron (an additional fee applies that includes a continental breakfast). Here are the details:
